- Bruce Pinkney Talk all day and dance around , is what I'm hearing
Peter Wright Buddhism explained suffering 2500 years ago. So did Christianity if you read the teachings of the mystics. Even Deepak Chopra's writings open the door to the path. Or read the poetry of David Whyte. Have the courage to go within before going to the next quick fix.
World Transformation Movement Yes Peter Wright, there have been many thinkers throughout history who have recognised that the answer to our troubled human condition lay in understanding a clash that must have occurred between our already established instincts and newly emerged consci... See More
AlexandVal Sanford Another would be but wont be the second commer .
Francis Alexander King you don't solve the human condition you understand it.
Edith Dyas A great idea but I do not believe it will change anything, the human race has become much corrupted.
Ashvin Shah But can he understand the Islamic and Pakistani behaviour!
Steve Barnes I've been reading his books for 25 or so years. His book "Beyond the Human Condition" utterly changed the way I see the world.
